WELCOME TO ICAAL 6 - WELCOME TO CAMBODIA

The Institute of National Language at the Royal Academy of Cambodia, the Center for Khmer Studies (CKS), and Summer Institute of Linguistics are pleased to announce that the Sixth International Conference on Austroasiatic Linguistics (ICAAL6, 2015) will be held on 29-31 JULY 2015 in Cambodia.

This conference aims to provide a dynamic three-day forum to share latest research findings and discuss new theories on the languages and linguistics of the Austroasiatic family.

Scholars are invited to submit papers on any linguistic subjects specifically related to Austroasiatic languages. As ICAAL6 will take place in Cambodia for the very first time, we hope to attract papers on the languages spoken in Cambodia thereby actively involving Cambodian linguists. Presentations will last 20-minutes, leaving 10 minutes afterward for discussion. The conference will make use of English, Khmer, and French languages.
